

JOINT TASK FORCE GUANTANAMO

SAFE • HUMANE

LEGAL • TRANSPARENT

Detainee programs

The Social Program includes recreation, communal prayers, family phone calls and mail.

- Regular post mail delivered in 2013 (Jan-Jun): 34 pieces
- ICRC mail delivered in 2013 (Jan-Jun): 545 pieces
- Privileged attorney/client mail
- Detainees have the opportunity for phone calls to family members.

The Intellectual Stimulation Program includes books, magazines and puzzles, newspapers, electronic games, movies and satellite television. This includes soccer games which are popular with the detainees.

The Instructional Program teaches literacy classes (in the detainees' native language), second language programs and art classes, including:

- Arabic to English
- Pashtu to English
- Art Class
- Literacy
- Life Skills to include Computer Familiarity
- Nutrition
- Spanish Language

Detainee Library

- More than 25,000 items
- 19,000+ books
- 2,000 magazines
- 3,000+ DVDs
- 750+ video games
- 15 different languages
- Detainees can check out between 2-8 books, and/or magazines
- Newspapers distributed weekly
- Currently used as a legal visitation center